

How does the bar code scanner used by the ground staff for logging your baggage work?
How do connecting flights handle the transfer of information of baggage?
Can the airlines get access to real time data from the airport? (baggage status)